

---

UTG(2) of 309 634). Mexico is also providing ivermectin 4 times a year (i.e. quarterly) in 50 of its most endemic communities in the Southern Chiapas focus, in a trial aimed at hastening onchocerciasis elimination. A 3-year impact evaluation of the communities involved is scheduled for 2006.